In respect of every contract entered into between Dish and the Customer (both as defined in Clause 1) pursuant to which Dish agrees to undertake catering for the Customer the following Terms of Trade shall apply:

1. Definitions

- a. "Customer" means the party completing the annexed Booking Form together with its successors and assigns.
- b. "Dish" means Dish Foods (NZ) Limited together with its successors and assigns.
- c. "Catering Services" means the supply of food and/or beverage with or without staff as required for the Customer's Function as detailed in the annexed Booking Form.
- d. "Function" means the event noted in the annexed Booking Form for which Dish has been contracted to supply Catering Services.
- e. Where there is more than one Customer the covenants on their part are deemed to be joint and several.

2. General

- a. Where these Terms of Trade are in conflict with specific conditions of the terms contained in the annexed Booking Forms, the terms contained in the Booking Form shall apply.
- b. No terms and conditions stipulated by the Customer shall annul or vary these conditions except insofar as expressly agreed to in writing by Dish.

3. Booking Form/Quotation

In every situation where Dish provides the Customer with a Booking Form detailing the Catering Services to be provided by Dish:

- a. Acceptance of the Booking Form by the Customer includes acceptance of these Terms of Trade except to the extent that they are in conflict with the express terms of the Booking Form.
- b. Dish will not accept nor shall it be obliged to accept a Function until it has received the Booking Form duly accepted by the Customer together with payment of the deposit (if any) prescribed in the Booking Form.

4. Payment

- a. If provision is made in the Booking Form for payment of a deposit, then that shall be paid in full by the Customer upon acceptance of the Booking Form.
- b. Unless otherwise stated payment should be made in full (or the balance thereof where a deposit has been paid) within seven (7) days of the Function Date together with any replacement cost recoverable under the provisions of Clause 7.
- c. Dish shall be entitled to charge interest at the rate of 18% per annum on overdue accounts from the date of due payment specified in Clauses 4(b) until the date of actual payment.
- d. Any costs incurred by Dish in the collection of any overdue account will be a charge to the Customer. Further, if Dish uses a Collection Agency to assist in the collection of any overdue monies from a Customer then these Terms of Trade shall serve as permission to divulge any information about the Customer to the appointed agency for the purposes of any debt collection.
- e. Any payments processed via credit card will incur a 3% additional fee. Any additional fees charged by banking agencies over and above standard transaction fees and incurred by Dish will also be added to the final amount due to be paid by the customer.

5. Cancellation of Function

Provided notification of cancellation of a function is given by the customer to Dish at least fourteen (14) days prior to the Function date specified in the booking form, any Down payment paid by the customer shall be refunded in full. Any deposit paid by the customer will be non refundable.

6. Variations to Minimum Numbers

All prices quoted in the Booking Form are based on the minimum number of attendees at the Function:

- a. Any variations from the minimum number must be notified to Dish not less than 72 hours before the Function Date. After this period the Customer shall be deemed to have accepted the quote and no reduction in price shall be applied if the number of attendees falls below the minimum number and no additional food, beverage or staff shall be supplied if the numbers of attendees exceed the minimum number.
- b. Where any variation from the minimum number is notified within the specified period the following shall apply:
 - i. Dish shall only be obliged to give consideration to reducing the quoted price where the number of attendees reduces by more than 20% of the minimum number of attendees.
 - ii. If the number of attendees is increased by more than 5% of the minimum number of attendees, the Customer acknowledges that the quoted price will be increased by such amount as Dish shall at its discretion, but following consultation with the Customer, consider appropriate in the circumstances.

7. Damage

Any crockery, cutlery or glassware that is provided by Dish for the Function and which is damaged or lost and such damage or loss was the result of any act or omission by the Customer or the attendees at the Function, the cost of replacing such damaged or lost items shall be a charge to the Customer at the replacement cost of those items and be payable in accordance with the provisions of Clause 4.

8. Liquor Licence

At all Functions where alcohol is being provided Dish shall ensure that it has a manager on duty who holds a current Manager's Certificate under the provisions of the Sale of Liquor Act 1989.

9. Privacy Act 1993

The Customer authorises Dish to contact any credit agency, referee or any other source to obtain, check or exchange information in connection with this contract. If the Customer is a natural person, the Privacy Act 1993 entitles the Customer to have access to personal information held by Dish about the Customer and to request correction of that information if necessary. Unless Dish is notified in writing by the Customer, promotional materials may be sent to the Customer from time to time. Other than as is provided for under Clause 4(c) personal details will not be divulged to any third party without the Customer's prior consent.

10. Force Majeure

Dish shall not be liable to the Customer for any loss or damage directly or indirectly arising out of or in connection with any delay and delivery of the goods or failure to perform its obligations under this Contract where such delay is caused directly or indirectly by an act of God, armed conflict, labour dispute, civil commotion, intervention of Government, accidents, interruptions of or delays in transportation, or any other cause beyond Dish's control.
